Message Series: When in Rome, Don't!

Message Title: Many Differences, One Jesus – A Call to the Gospel

Date: August 10, 2025

Speaker: Curtis House

DISCUSSION & APPLICATION

Read Romans 15:1-16.

Whether we are out in front or behind the scenes, there are no insignificant people in the kingdom of God.

1) Are you called by God? Who are you called to?

Read Romans 15:17-33.

The Lord must have the right over my ambitions. Otherwise, He is not Lord over my life!

2) What is something you have recently surrendered to the Lord instead of following your own plan and desires?

3) Do you hear the Lord for yourself or rely on the knowledge of others to hear Him?

1 Corinthians 8:1 (NLT) says, "Now regarding your question about food that has been offered to idols. Yes, we know that 'we all have knowledge' about this issue. But while knowledge makes us feel important, it is love that strengthens the church."

4) Love God and love others. Who is someone in your sphere of influence that most people have given up on? In what ways is the Holy Spirit showing you to be a witness of God's love to them.

AT A GLANCE

SCRIPTURE

Romans 15; 1 Corinthians 8:1

APPLICATION

- First things first
- Bless those who pour into you
- Pray for those who lead

PAUSE, PONDER, AND PRAY

You may think you don't have anything to offer the kingdom of God. But the truth is, you have everything to offer! He is the Potter and we are the clay. In what area is God desiring to better mold you?
